

Code of Conduct for Participants

- All Visitors are expected to behave in a reasonable manner. In surrounding lanes and countryside, regular pathways should be used. Boundaries must be observed. Where the privacy of neighbours is violated, the right is reserved by the Centre Manager to ask the offending visitors to leave.
- The use of any of the Centre's equipment is totally prohibited unless a member of Staff from is present or its use duly authorised.
- At least one Leader from visiting groups must accompany their group on activities.
- Evening Activity/Entertainment - To avoid any confusion, we seek to ensure a clear handover of responsibility for party members from party leader to our staff and vice versa at appropriate points of the day
- The Centre Manager/Duty Instructor will report misbehaviour to the leader in charge, who must be present on-site at all times. However, the right is reserved by them to correct visitors and, if necessary to require the leader to remove the offending visitor(s) from the Centre.
- Fires may only be lit in areas specified by the Duty Manager/Duty Instructor.
- The disfigurement of trees and shrubs will not be tolerated.
- Breakages or damage to Centre property must be notified to the Centre Manager/Duty Instructor immediately. All damages must be paid for.
- All accidents and incidents, no matter how trivial MUST be reported to the Centre Manager/Duty Instructor IMMEDIATELY. Except for its own negligence, The Boys' Brigade (Belfast Battalion) will not be responsible for any personal injuries suffered by visitors or damage to health or damage/loss to their property or goods, however arising.
- All vehicles and belongings are left at your own risk.
- Smoking, vaping and the consumption of alcohol are not permitted on site. Anyone found using illegal substances will be reported to the relevant authorities.
- Residential and canvas groups are asked to respect quiet on site from 11.00pm through to 7.30am.
- If and when permitted, all outside vendors, caterers, bouncy castles, DJs, etc, will be required to send a copy of all relevant licenses, proof of public liability insurance and food hygiene certificates to the centre at the time of booking. You will also require a separate public liability policy for any activities not instructed by Ganaway Training and Activity Centre staff.
- For the protection of livestock on adjacent farmland and the health and safety of other guests, no pets, animals and, in particular, dogs (except assistance dogs – but please advise the management) are allowed on site.
- Whilst The Boys' Brigade (Belfast Battalion) makes every effort to maintain the highest level of safety in all the Centre's activities, participants must recognise that, due to the nature of adventurous activities, the risk of injury cannot be completely ruled out.
